

Bradley Madsen – Trombone

brad@bradleymadsen.com

917-648-1486

Performance Experience

- Active freelance performer in New York City, performing with Soul-Be-It, The Funky Fritters, The After-Hours All-Stars, Blue Nitrous, Sound of Infinity, and others, as well as leading the Bradley Madsen Quartet
- Member of the preferred ceremonial brass group of NYC Mayor Michael Bloomberg
- Solo recital of standard literature in a Brooklyn College sponsored venue
- Associate Principal of the Brooklyn College Conservatory Wind Ensemble
- Orchestra and Opera performances with the New York Symphonic Arts Ensemble, the Brooklyn College Opera Theater, and the Mannes College of Music Orchestra
- Studio work for The Sharp Things, Foxy Moon Baby, The Funky Fritters, NY Minute, Abe Silverman Big Band, and others.
- National tours to Illinois, Texas, Pennsylvania, Washington DC, Massachusetts, New Jersey, and Ohio with The Sharp Things and Foxy Moon Baby

Education

2009 - Present – Master of Classical Performance Studies at Brooklyn College

- Maintained a perfect 4.0 record in the first year of studies
- Current expected graduation – May 2012
- Trombone Teacher: Bruce Bonvisutto

2005 - 2006 – Advanced Certificate in Music Education – Brooklyn College

2001 - 2005 – Bachelor of Fine Arts, Jazz/Contemporary Music, Trombone Performance - Honors Graduate, New School University

- Member of a majority of performance groups, including the Afro-Cuban Jazz Orchestra (first chair), the Brazilian Ensemble, the Blues Ensemble, Music of the Fringe, the Mingus Ensemble
- Trombone Teachers: Tim Newman, Art Barron, Luis Bonilla, Ku-Umba Frank Lacy

References

Available Upon Request